Start and finish your journey at the San Angelo Visitor Center, located on the award-winning Concho River Walk. Along with its natural beauty, you will discover more than just nature as you walk along the paths of the river.

Let the kids play at Kid's Kingdom, revel in highly visible art installations by Art in Uncommon Places, then take a break at The Bosque.

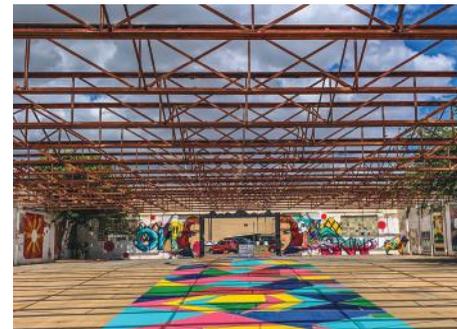

Grab a bite at Twisted Root Burger Co. and enjoy scenic views atop their back patio, overlooking the river.

Treat your sweet tooth at The Latest Scoop, then venture over to the open-air Pop Art Museum and Paintbrush Alley.

Check out The Stephens Library and Helen's Bistro & Bakery, located inside the library, then grab a root beer float and enjoy the vintage vibes at Stango's Coffee Shop.

From there, visit the Historic Murals of San Angelo, and then head to the City Park Pavilion. Take a break under the gazebo and enjoy the view while the kids burn off some energy.

Wrap up your 3-mile journey by making your way back down the Concho River Walk. You'll be sure to discover even more the second time around.
